

Maria Mozgova Auction Announces an "American, Early Texas Furniture, Silver, Art & collectibles" Estate Auction on May 3rd Featuring a Fine Estate from Columbus, Texas.

On May 3rd 2012 at 6:30pm in Houston, Texas, Maria Mozgova Auction will conduct an "American, Early Texas Furniture, Silver, Art & collectibles" estate auction of the fine estate of Mr. Joseph Spitler from Columbus, Texas. This avid collector shared his time between Santa Fe, New Mexico and his hometown of Columbus, Texas. Over 40 years he accumulated a large selection of 19th century American furniture, including some mid 1800's Texas furniture. He also collected sterling silver, Staffordshire, fine china, high end carpets, jewelry (Rolex, Cartier), works from known artists such as William Johnson, Tim Deibler, Valerie Graves, Ken Daggett, David Adickes and Jim Rabby, and many other talented artists. His two houses in Columbus, Texas were full of nice antique Texan decorative items and Native American collectibles. This auction will be live on LiveAuctioneers.

The online catalog is accessible at http://www.liveauctioneers.com/catalog_gallery/29557 and partial listing includes:
